SOCIALLY PROMINENT

CROSLEY CAR OWNERS IN EAST

Find new convenience, wider range, to their activities; greater independence in this light-weight economical transportation.

Mrs. James Russell Lowell of New York and Glen Head, L. I., at the wheel of her Crosley Car.

Mrs. Thomas Le Boutillier, New York and Jericho, L. I., arrives at New York's Fair comfortably and quickly in her Crosley, which she parks, to her delight, at half regular parking rates.

Elizabeth Alexandre, post debutante, New York and Lawrence, L. I., arrives at Lawrence Beach Club. Crosley cars give junior members of the family freedom to get about on their own.

Eileen Herrick, popular last season's deb of New York and Wainscott, L. I., keeps luncheon date promptly . . . finds parking on New York streets simplified with Crosley car . . . no longer makes her plans with an eye to who uses family car when.