POWELL CROSLEY, JR., BUYS WACO CABIN SHIP

An order was placed last week by Powell Crosley, Jr., owner of WLW, Crosley radio station, Cincinnati, with the Waco Aircraft company of this city for a four-place cabin 1933 de luxe model Waco to be used for personal travel and pleasure.

Work was started Thursday on the plane, and, according to present plans, it will be completed within the next two weeks.

Waco officials take great pride in this sale as they believe it is proof that leading business men and women of this and other countries are recognizing the Troy built planes are outstanding as models of safety and beauty for both speed and pleasure in travel.
