

On this 4th day of Nov. nineteen hundred and forty four, the fickle finger of fate finds it expedient to trace on the roll of the

LUCKY BASTARDS CLUB

The Name of

Donald L. McDermott pilot on the Flying Fortress D-Day Doll for having this day achieved the remarkable record of sallying forth and returning no less than 35 times, for having braved the hazards of Hun Flak, for bringing to Hitler and his cronies tons of bombs, for bending the Luftwaffe back; all through the courtesy of the VIII AAF who sponsors these programs in the interest of liberty loving people everywhere.
