Forever In Our Hearts Garro (Rojo) Ke'eaumoku Johnson

Garro (Rojo) Ke'eaumoku Johnson was born Sept. 14, 1955 to Kurt and Claire Johnson of Kaneohe, Hawaii. As a child he spent much of his time in and around the ocean. His favorite things in life were his family, friends, flying, surfing, drumming, cooking, chocolate pudding pies, music, single malt scotch, the holiday season, watching formula 1 racing, Tour de France, and of course the MOVIES. He was blessed with the special ability of making people feel at ease with his radiant smile, sparkling eyes and contagious laugh. His sense of humor would always brighten your day whether you were a close friend or just the guy standing next to him in line at the post office. Ro embodied the true meaning of Aloha as is evident by the number of great friends he gathered throughout his life. Rojo was a F15 fighter pilot with the 199th Fighter Squadron HIANG and also a 717 pilot at Hawaiian Airlines. He and his family fought bravely against an aggressive form of cancer. During his two and a half year battle he managed to always keep that bright smile, sparkling eyes and incredible sense of humor. Ro lived and loved fully even to the very last. We will all miss him dearly and hold him in our hearts forever. Ro died peacefully at Castle Hospital on Oct. 29, 2006 at the age of 51. He is survived by his wife, Laura; son, Parker; daughter, Alena; mother, Claire; sister, Arna; and brother, Koa. Ê Visitation at 11:00 am Thursday at Hawaiian Memorial Park Mortuary in Kaneohe; service 12:30; honors ceremony at 2:00pm at Hawaii Veterans Cemetery.
