

agent to market surplus Clippers

Pan Am has appointed Frederick B. Ayer & Associates, Inc., as agents for the marketing of all Pan Am surplus jet aircraft. Pan Am currently owns or operates an all-Boeing fleet of more than 160 aircraft. The Ayer firm is headquartered in the Pan Am Building. The company buys, sells, leases and brokers civil aircraft, and manages the purchase and resale of complete transportation packages, from a single airplane to an entire airline fleet.