

Estate North Star

The Brown House

The Brown House - was the first house on the right as you came up the drive way. We moved down from the top house because it gave a better position to monitor the property. The house sat in front of the old factory where some rooms were still used to store supplies and tools. It was also a quick walk to dive at the end of the driveway.

