

JACK BROWN AND his wife Lee flew their Grumman Duck, a J2F6, into Christiansted harbor to visit old friend Tom McMurry at "The Outrigger." The yellow 2-seater biplane, built in 1946, is the last of its type still flying. Wingtip Pelicans briefly adopted her before the Browns took off for Puerto Rico. (Daily News Photo)