Mick Goggin,
139 Mayorstone Park,
Limerick,
Republic of Ireland.

Dear Mick:

I particularly enjoy hearing from my old friends of those memorable days at Shannon Airport. It was a sad day for all of us when Pan Am shut down its service there. Maureen and I now travel via London to reach our place at Glengarriff on Bantry Bay. We'll be back again this summer, and I hope you'll be down that way sometime.

Our phone is Glengarriff 4 if you are down that way.

I have enclosed the picture and a timetable of our schedules here. We will be getting out some propoganda relative to the package tours we hope to run later this year with the Sandringhams, but we don't have anything ready yet.

The inscription on the photo isn't highly visible because of its dark blue coloring.

With all best wishes.

Sincerely,

Charles Blair
