

K. C. IRVING NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH

Saint John, Dec. 4—(BUP)— New Brunswick industrialist, K. C. Irving, miraculously escaped injury early this morning when his private plane crashed and burned.

Mr. Irving and his pilot Jimmy Wade were just taking off from the Saint John Municipal Airport at Milledgeville when the aircraft lost altitude and crashed in the woods between the airfield and the nearby Kennebecasis River.

Irving and Wade both escaped with only scratches and bruises.

The crash occurred at 8:45 this morning, and at latest reports the plane was still burning.
