

Bakersfield Flier Given Stiff Fine

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 22. (AP)—Elynor Rudnick, 27-year-old owner of the Bakersfield Air Park, has been fined $1,000 by U. S. Judge Peirson Hall on her no contest plea to charges of aiding and abetting the outfitting of a warplane destined for the Palestine air forces.

The court dismissed a felony indictment against her, Service Airways, Inc., Adolph W. Schwimmer, Ray Selk and Sam Lewis. The indictment charged misuse of airplane parts purchased from the war assets administration.
