MAI TAI

Authentic Hawaii itself is found in this tropical blending of RUM, fruit juices, and lime segments. In Tahitian this means "Good For You."

Puka Puka

A long one... RUM over shaved ice. A delightful drink for the Pukkah Sahibs and their ladies.

NAVY GROG

The English sailors were issued this each day, when ships were wood and men were iron. Rum, rum, and more rum with a touch of Polynesian magic.

HOLY COW

A harmonious blend of Creme de Cacao, RUM, and milk coupled with the gold of the egg and a sprinkling of nutmeg. Relieves Weary Muscles and Tired Eyes.

FOG CUTTER

A vase full of rum, gin, brandy, and liqueurs to quench your thirst — Beware of the ease with which it goes down.

OKOLE MALUNA

Means "Bottoms Up" to the greatest sipping since the Zombie. RUM and fruit juice vitamins offer health, but beware the lower level... it ends with a bang.

SCORPION

Honolulu's own libation. RUM, fruit juices, and secret ingredients are bedecked with a floating orchid... A South Sea Adventure.

SHARKS TOOTH

Pomegranate is the flavor, and high powered rum the propulsion for this drink with the bite of its name.

TAHITIAN RUM PUNCH

A frothy froth of rums, orange, lemon, lime and something secret. The grand-dad of all rum drinks.

VOLCANO

Cool going down, but once there warming as big island lava is this union of RUM, fruit and fruit juices, plus our mixologist's secret ingredients.

VICIOUS VIRGIN

Innocent as a babe in the woods... who's grown up. A siren's song of West Indies Rum and liqueurs. Handle with care.
